Is solar energy a good investment for your business?

The constant rise of energy prices, and generous federal and state incentives for solar, means solar energy is one of the best investments your business could make. By generating your own energy, and not paying a utility company to provide it, you save money from day one and protect yourself from future energy price increases.

Is Unique Solar a good company?

"We are so very pleased that we chose Unique Solar. From start to finish working with Unique Solar was stress free and professional. Ulf patiently educated us, and recommended just what we needed, and did not try to over sell. The crew was super efficient and courteous. We highly recommend that you use Unique Solar... you will not be disappointed"
