South Koreans in the city of Masan protested against the fraudulent election. On 11 April 1960, the tortured body of Kim Chu Yol, a student who had participated in the antigovernment demonstration, was found by a fisherman in the bay near Masan; he had been fatally struck by a tear-gas canister and had fragments of a tear-gas bomb in his eyes.

Sima Qian's use of zhishen may well have followed Dong Zhongshu. Thus, Dong's statements--"one who cultivates the body (zhishenzhe) accrues jing as his treasure," "when jing accrues in the body blood and qi are fused together," "one who cultivates his body is dedicated to subtlety and stillness in order to attain purity," and so on--may be used to explain ...
